Biden will indeed raise taxes on small business

Here's the key exchange:

Moderator: "I want to ask you about Latinos owning one out of every four new small businesses in the United States. Many of them have benefited from President Trump's tax cuts. And they may be hesitant about new taxes or regulations. Will taxes on their small businesses go up under your administration?"

Biden: "No. Taxes on small businesses won't go up."

Biden Lies About Taxes Not Going Up On Sm...

Biden is lying. Biden's threatened repeal of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act would raise taxes on small businesses by raising marginal income tax rates and eliminating the 20 percent small business deduction.

Small businesses typically pay taxes through the individual tax system. If Biden repeals the TCJA as he has promised, marginal tax rates go up across the board, hitting millions of small businesses.

Biden's threatened repeal of TCJA would also eliminate the law's 20 percent deduction for small business pass-through income. There are nearly 30 million pass-through entities in the United States.

Biden's steep corporate tax increase from 21 percent to 28 percent would also hit many small businesses organized as corporations.

President Biden constantly accuses others of not "paying their fair share" of taxes and even claims tax increases are "patriotic." But Biden himself could owe up to $500,000 in unpaid taxes, according to a new report by the Congressional Research Service, published in the New York Post.

Biden has been lying about taxes for a while. When he ran for Vice President in 2008 he repeatedly said he would not support any form of any tax that imposed even “one single penny” of tax increase on any American making less than $250,000.

Biden shattered that promise upon taking office.
